

LEADERSHIP BLOOMINGTON MONROE COUNTY
alumni association

2022 ANNUAL REPORT

---

CONTENTS

- 03 LBMC Alumni Assn. Board Members
- 04 Class of 2022 Highlights
- 05 Class of 2022 Projects
- 06 2022 Distinguished Alumni Honoree
- 07 Program Sponsors
- 08 Class of 2023

2022 LBMC ALUMNI ASSOCIATION BOARD MEMBERS

Jason Moore
President

Hannah Hirsch
Member at Large

Santiago Sotomayor
Treasurer

Shatoyia Moss
Member at Large

Jennifer Borland
Secretary

Alex Semchuck
Member at Large

Laura Blaker
Member at Large

Jim Shelton
Member at Large

Moriah Sowders
Member at Large

Special thanks to Brandon Boyd who served as President for the first part of 2022.

CLASS OF 2022 HIGHLIGHTS

19

Class Participants

4

Group Projects

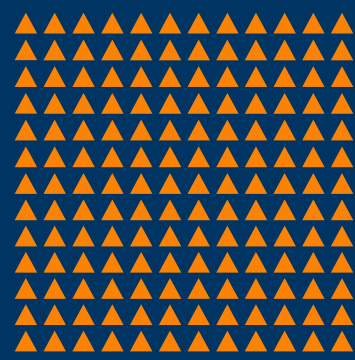

4

Scholarships
Awarded

- 2 members of the class of 2021 were recognized at the class of 2022 graduation as they were unable to have an in-person graduation due to COVID.
- 2 members of the class of 2022 went on to serve as LBMC Alumni Association Board members

CLASS OF 2022 PROJECTS

Community Sports Connection

Participants: Alan Biggs, Pam Chapman, Dawnetta Cooper, Jenni Druckery, Dayna Thompson
Goal: Increase access to knowledge about youth sports opportunities and increase numbers in youth sports in the county

Bell Trace Reading Buddies

Participants: Alan Biggs, Pam Chapman, Dawnetta Cooper, Jenni Druckery, Dayna Thompson
Goal: Increase access to knowledge about youth sports opportunities and increase numbers in youth sports in the county

Find Help = Get Help

Participants: Theresa Claire, Noelle Conyer, Hilary Fleck, Alex Semchuck
Goal: To raise awareness of the "helpingbloomingtonmonroe.findhelp.com" website in the community

Friends of Foster Closet

Participants: Carter Challance, Alyssa Davis, Stacie Marotta, Abby Mitchell, Shatoyia Moss, Erin Zody
Goal: Provide foster children with a semblance of ownership, consistency, dignity, and empowerment through providing belongings that they may need

2022 DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARD

2022 Keith Klein Distinguished Alumni Award

Jason Moore, alumni board president presented the Keith Klein distinguished alumni award to Joyce Poling.

THANKS TO OUR 2022 & 2023 PROGRAM SPONSORS

Our Class of 2022 sponsors included the IU Credit Union and IU Credit Union Investment Services.

Our Class of 2023 sponsors included the IU Credit Union, IU Credit Union Investment Services, One World Enterprises and the City of Bloomington

CLASS OF 2023

Class members: 21

Sponsorships Awarded: 9

Projects

The Period Project – Period Empowerment

Participants: Kayla Dusseau, Julie Beth McFall, Gillian Thiebe, Mandee Weissert

Goal: Develop a plan to provide products, education, and advocacy for menstruating humans in need.

Project SOS (Safe Outdoor Spaces)

Participants: Chaz Mottinger, Daniel Schlegel, Tim Street, Myrick “Mick” Williams

Goal: Provide local decision-makers in Bloomington-Monroe County with current info and local research regarding the potential establishment of temporary safe outdoor spaces for people experiencing homelessness – especially those experiencing street homelessness, who by choice or circumstance may not utilize existing methods of shelter

Accessible Bloomington Childcare Directory (ABCD)

Participants: Megan Effner, Laura Sargent, Jeni Waters

Goal: Create a one-stop-shop where individuals can go to view childcare costs/availability and learn about government assistance

Mobile Health Literacy Project

Participants: Marisa Churchill, Julius Hanks, Rosalind Mark, Carrie Stillions, Janett Thomas

Goal: Provide mobile healthcare literacy services to marginalized communities to improve health outcomes

Career Pathways Awareness & Exploration

Participants: Shaun Ballard, Brandi Hamilton, Sandra McGow, Amie Stringer, Eryn Wisler

Goal: Provide earlier exposure to non-college careers in our community and to show that there is a need for skilled workers locally

